

Note-taking Worksheet

Notes should record main points, ideas and concepts from the sources that you are examining. Your notes can also highlight connections with your topic and with other sources. For each resource (i.e., article, book, website, newspaper, etc.), use this note-taking worksheet to keep track of your notes.

Citation Information for the Resource	Keywords Used to Find This Resource
Author: Title:  Year:
Pages:

	Overview (in your own words)	Connections (to topic and other sources consulted) How might resource be used in paper?
Summary: Is there a central argument, viewpoint or perspective?
Key points: What are the main points? What evidence is presented that relates to your topic?
Questions: Are any questions raised by the resource?		