York University is the leading interdisciplinary research and teaching university in Canada. York offers a modern, academic experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels in Toronto – Canada’s most international city. The third largest university in the country, York is host to a dynamic academic community of 62,000 students, faculty and staff, as well as 295,000 alumni worldwide. York’s 11 Faculties and 25 research centres conduct ambitious, ground-breaking research that is interdisciplinary and cuts across traditional academic boundaries.

Description of Position:
York University Libraries’ (YUL) Division of Teaching & Learning seeks a dynamic and innovative librarian to work on a part-time basis, supporting research and teaching related to all aspects of business, with a specialized focus on marketing, as well as social sciences.

The Bronfman Business Library supports business-related research and teaching at York University and maintains a print collection of around 25,000 monograph titles along with an extensive electronic collection consisting of full-text and numeric business resources and databases.

Specific Duties:
Reporting to the Director of Student Learning & Academic Success, the successful candidate will:

- Instruct information literacy classes/workshops/consultations for business students, with a particular focus on marketing.
- Instruct information literacy classes/workshops/consultations for social science students.
- Provide timely, high-quality public service at an active business reference desk including in-person, e-mail, chat service and ‘Ask a Librarian’ virtual reference service.
- Assist with collection development projects as assigned.
- Create/maintain online research guides and tutorials as assigned.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:
- An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent.
- Experience instructing or training individuals or groups/classes on conducting research on business topics in a corporate setting, public library or academic library.
● Demonstrated substantial knowledge of a range of business databases and resources including articles databases, company, industry, finance and market research tools/resources.
● Recent experience, within the last 5 years, providing business reference or research support within an academic or special library/corporate environment.
● Demonstrated expertise in marketing or retail topic areas.
● Experience instructing or training individuals or groups/classes on conducting research on business topics in a corporate setting, public library or academic library.
● Demonstrated knowledge and skills with library instruction techniques, technologies and information literacy theories, including ACRL’s Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education
● Demonstrated ability to deliver student-centered information literacy sessions clearly and concisely
● Educational background in social sciences/humanities
● Knowledge of and ability to use current technologies used in libraries.
● Ability to learn quickly and be able to perform in a fast-paced working environment

Number of Hour per Week:
15 hours per week. Classes are normally scheduled between 8:30am – 5:00pm, with some evening exceptions, and with a minimum of 2 weeks of notification. Non-classroom work, including preparation time, will be scheduled accordingly.
Some evening and weekend work may be required

Compensation: As per current CUPE 3903, Unit 4, Collective Agreement

Start Date: September 4, 2018

End Date: April 30, 2019

Date of Posting: July 1, 2018

Application Deadline: July 15, 2018

Application Procedure:
Interested applicants should send a cover letter and a recent resume, along with an application form http://www.library.yorku.ca/web/about-us/work-with-us/
quoting position number, to libapps@yorku.ca

We thank all applicants; however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

York University encourages applications from Aboriginal peoples, persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities, and women and invites applicants to review the University’s Employment Equity Plan for employees in CUPE 3903, a copy of which is at http://fr.info.yorku.ca.