York University is the leading interdisciplinary research and teaching university in Canada. York offers a modern, academic experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels in Toronto – Canada’s most international city. The third largest university in the country, York is host to a dynamic academic community of 62,000 students, faculty and staff, as well as 295,000 alumni worldwide. York’s 11 Faculties and 25 research centres conduct ambitious, ground-breaking research that is interdisciplinary and cuts across traditional academic boundaries.

Description of Position:
York University Libraries’ (YUL) Division of Teaching & Learning seeks a dynamic and innovative librarian to work on a part-time basis, supporting research and teaching primarily at the Frost Library, Glendon Campus, but with some duties at the Scott Library at York University’s Keele campus.

The Student Learning & Academic Success Department offers an active and engaging information literacy program that aims to enable students, faculty, and others to recognize the social context of information, to develop information-seeking behaviours that transcend specific finding tools, and to think critically about information.

The Leslie Frost Library provides facilities, resources, reference, research and instructional services to approximately 2,800 students and faculty at the Glendon College campus of York University. Glendon offers a university education unique in Canada in its combination of quality academic offerings, campus experience, and commitment to bilingualism.

The Scott Library provides access to collections, services and research assistance to support those working in the humanities, social sciences, fine arts and environmental studies at the Keele campus.

Specific Duties:
Reporting to the Director of Student Learning & Academic Success, the successful candidate will:

- Instruct information literacy classes/workshops to support programs at the Glendon campus and for the social sciences and humanities areas at the Keele campus as directed.
- Provide timely, high-quality public service, including reference and consultation services, primarily at the Frost Library, with some service at the Scott Library, and with the Ask A Librarian/Clavardez chat service.
- Create/maintain online research guides and tutorials as assigned.
- Assist with collection development projects as assigned.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:
- An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent
- Demonstrated knowledge and skills with library instruction techniques, technologies and information literacy theories, including ACRL’s Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education
Demonstrated ability to deliver student-centered information literacy sessions clearly and concisely
Demonstrated recent experience in social sciences/humanities librarianship in an academic environment
Demonstrated knowledge of social sciences and humanities resources.
Demonstrated experience and strong communication skills in negotiating reference queries, especially in social sciences/humanities contexts, including the ability to both teach and contextualize relevant resources relative to a patron’s information needs
A commitment to high quality service
Strong written and oral communication skills in both French and English
Strong communication and interpersonal skills
Demonstrated knowledge of and ability to use current technologies used in libraries
Ability to learn quickly and be able to perform in a fast-paced working environment

Number of Hour per Week:
15 hours per week. Classes are normally scheduled between 8:30am – 5:00pm, with some evening exceptions, and with a minimum of 2 weeks of notification. Non-classroom work, including preparation time, will be scheduled accordingly.

Compensation: As per current CUPE 3903, Unit 4, Collective Agreement

Start Date: May 1, 2020

End Date: April 30, 2021

Date of Posting: February 28, 2020

Application Deadline: March 13, 2020

Application Procedure:
Interested applicants should send a cover letter and a recent resume, along with an application form https://www.library.yorku.ca/web/wp-content/uploads/2016/05/PTApplicationForm.March2017-1.pdf quoting posting number, to libapps@yorku.ca
