York University is the leading interdisciplinary research and teaching university in Canada. York offers a modern, academic experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels in Toronto – Canada’s most international city. The third largest university in the country, York is host to a dynamic academic community of 62,000 students, faculty and staff, as well as 295,000 alumni worldwide. York’s 11 Faculties and 25 research centres conduct ambitious, ground-breaking research that is interdisciplinary and cuts across traditional academic boundaries.

Description of Position:
York University Libraries’ (YUL) Division of Teaching & Learning seeks a dynamic and innovative librarian to work on a part-time basis, supporting bilingual and other programming, including research and teaching for York University Libraries.

The Student Learning & Academic Success Department offers an active and engaging information literacy program that aims to enable students, faculty, and others to recognize the social context of information, to develop information-seeking behaviours that transcend specific finding tools, and to think critically about information.

Specific Duties:
Reporting to the Director of Student Learning & Academic Success and the Director, Learning Commons and Reference Services, the successful candidate will:

- Instruct information literacy classes/workshops, with a focus on synchronous and asynchronous teaching, for courses or programs taught primarily through Glendon Faculty, combined with some teaching of undergraduate information literacy classes in the social sciences and humanities for Keele campus programs. This instruction to be delivered predominantly online in Fall 2021, though some in-person information literacy classes may be required.
- Provide timely, high-quality research help services, including bilingual reference services, in addition to consultation services, in support of both Glendon and Keele-based social sciences or humanities programs. Delivery modes for research help services are anticipated to be primarily online in Fall 2021.
- Create/maintain online research guides and tutorials as assigned.
- Assist with collection development projects as assigned.
- Assist with translation from English to French of library web pages and guides.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:
- An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent
• Demonstrated knowledge and skills with library instruction techniques, technologies and information literacy theories, including ACRL’s Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education
• Demonstrated ability to deliver student-centered information literacy sessions clearly and concisely in English, French, or bilingually.
• Demonstrated recent experience in social sciences/humanities librarianship in an academic environment
• Demonstrated knowledge of social sciences and humanities resources.
• Demonstrated experience and strong communication skills in negotiating reference queries, especially in social sciences/humanities contexts, including the ability to both teach and contextualize relevant resources relative to a patron’s information needs
• A commitment to high quality service
• Strong written and oral communication skills in both French and English
• Demonstrated ability to translate text from English to French and from French to English
• Strong communication and interpersonal skills
• Demonstrated knowledge of and ability to use current technologies used in libraries
• Ability to learn quickly and be able to perform in a fast-paced working environment

Number of Hour per Week:
15 hours per week.

Classes are normally scheduled between 8:30am – 5:00pm, with some evening exceptions, and with a minimum of 2 weeks of notification. Availability for flexible scheduling, Monday to Friday, is required to meet teaching responsibilities. Non-classroom work, including preparation time, will be scheduled accordingly.

Compensation: As per current CUPE 3903, Unit 4, Collective Agreement

Start Date: September 1\(^{st}\), 2021

End Date: December 31\(^{st}\), 2021

Date of Posting: August 12\(^{th}\), 2021
