Part-time Librarian
York University Libraries

York University is the leading interdisciplinary research and teaching university in Canada. York offers a modern, academic experience at the undergraduate and graduate levels in Toronto – Canada’s most international city. The third largest university in the country, York is host to a dynamic academic community of 62,000 students, faculty and staff, as well as 295,000 alumni worldwide. York’s 11 Faculties and 25 research centres conduct ambitious, ground-breaking research that is interdisciplinary and cuts across traditional academic boundaries.

Description of Position:
York University Libraries’ (YUL) Division of Teaching & Learning seeks a dynamic and innovative librarian to work on a part-time basis, supporting research and teaching for York University Libraries.

Specific Duties:
Reporting to the Director, Learning Commons and Reference Services, the successful candidate will:

- Provide timely, high-quality research help services, including reference services, in addition to consultation services. Consultation assignments will be primarily in support of social sciences or humanities programs. Delivery modes for research help services are anticipated to be primarily online in Fall 2021.
- Create/maintain online research guides and tutorials as assigned.
- Assist with collection development projects as assigned.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:
- An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent
- Demonstrated recent experience in social sciences/humanities librarianship in an academic environment
- Demonstrated knowledge of social sciences and humanities resources
- Demonstrated experience and strong communication skills in negotiating reference queries, especially in social sciences/humanities contexts, including the ability to both teach and contextualize relevant resources relative to a patron’s information needs
- A commitment to high quality service
- Strong written and oral communication skills
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Demonstrated knowledge of and ability to use current technologies used in libraries
- Ability to learn quickly and be able to perform in a fast-paced working environment
Number of Hour per Week:
15 hours per week.
This includes a weekly Saturday shift at the Steacie Science & Engineering Library from 10 am to 6 pm to meet minimum on-site library staffing requirements. Primary duties on this Saturday will include being on staff for a York University Libraries virtual chat reference service. Availability for up to two evening reference shifts weekly is required.
