York University Libraries’ (YUL) Division of Teaching & Learning seeks a dynamic and innovative librarian to work on a part-time basis, primarily supporting bilingual teaching, bilingual programming and providing research and consultation help as necessary for York University Libraries.

The Student Learning & Academic Success Department offers an active and engaging information literacy program that aims to enable students, faculty, and others to recognize the social context of information, to develop information-seeking behaviours that transcend specific finding tools, and to think critically about information.

Specific Duties:
Reporting to the Director of Student Learning & Academic Success and the Director, Learning Commons and Reference Services, the successful candidate will:

- Instruct information literacy classes/workshops, with a focus on synchronous and asynchronous teaching, for courses or programs taught primarily through Glendon Faculty.
- Provide timely, high-quality research help services, especially consultation services, primarily in support of Glendon programs.
- Create/maintain online research guides and tutorials as assigned.
- Assist with collection development projects as assigned.
- Assist with translation from English to French of library web pages and guides.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:
- An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent
- Demonstrated knowledge and skills with library instruction techniques, technologies and information literacy theories, including ACRL’s Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education
- Demonstrated ability to deliver student-centered information literacy sessions clearly and concisely in English, French, or bilingually.
- Demonstrated recent experience in social sciences/humanities and fine arts librarianship in an academic environment
• Demonstrated knowledge of social sciences and humanities resources.
• Demonstrated experience and strong communication skills in negotiating reference queries, especially in social sciences/humanities contexts, including the ability to both teach and contextualize relevant resources relative to a patron’s information needs
• A commitment to high quality service
• Strong written and oral communication skills in both French and English
• Demonstrated ability to translate text from English to French and from French to English
• Strong communication and interpersonal skills
• Demonstrated knowledge of and ability to use current technologies used in libraries
• Ability to learn quickly and be able to perform in a fast-paced working environment

Number of Hour per Week:
15 hours per week.

Classes are normally scheduled between 8:30am – 5:00pm, with some evening exceptions, and with a minimum of 2 weeks of notification. Availability for flexible scheduling, Monday to Friday, is required to meet teaching responsibilities. Non-classroom work, including preparation time, will be scheduled accordingly.
