York University Libraries’ (YUL) Division of Teaching & Learning and the Vice Provost Academic seeks a dynamic and innovative librarian to work on a part-time basis, with the primary focus on developing Academic Integrity eLearning materials as part of a broader digital project funded by York’s Academic Innovation Fund.

The Student Learning & Academic Success (SLAS) Department offers an active and engaging information literacy program that aims to enable students, faculty, and others to recognize the social context of information, to develop information-seeking behaviours that transcend specific finding tools, and to think critically about information.

Specific Duties:
Reporting to the Director of SLAS and the Vice Provost Academic Curriculum Specialist, the successful candidate will:

- Use video editing software and the H5P eCampus Ontario platform to create student-focused learning objects dealing with complex issues of Academic Integrity in a western-centric environment.
- Create video scripts and storyboards.
- Communicate across departments at York and play a key role in composing and writing copy for a central student-facing Academic Integrity web portal.
- Conduct research, synthesize, and translate scholarly information for a non-academic audience.
- Write web-based information for easy access and use.
- Use Microsoft Teams to collaborate and create documentation and training modules.
- Assist in creating training materials and supporting documentation.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:
- An ALA-accredited MLS or equivalent
- Demonstrated experience creating impactful online teaching modules using RWD technologies as well as H5P and video animation tools.
- Demonstrated knowledge of Academic Integrity practices in a higher education environment in Canada.
- Demonstrated experience writing for broad audience in and out of the academy.
• Demonstrated experience with visual literacies and online learning.
• Experience with conducting academic research and synthesizing the findings.
• Excellent organizational skills.
• Demonstrated knowledge of emerging trends in scholarly communications (open access, author rights), copyright, and library and information technologies.
• Strong communication and interpersonal skills.
• Ability to learn quickly and be able to perform in a fast-paced working environment.
• Demonstrated aptitude for independent learning and mastery of technology/software with an aptitude for technical troubleshooting.

Number of Hour per Week:
15 hours per week.
Work will be scheduled usually between 9am-5pm with some flexibility to account for large meetings and stakeholder availability.

Compensation: As per current CUPE 3903, Unit 4, Collective Agreement

Start Date: January 1, 2022

End Date: April 30, 2022
